LOCAL CHARITY GETS ACTIVE

Chichester based charity, Children on the Edge takes part in Chichester's Big Weekend.

This weekend staff and volunteers from Children on the Edge took part in Chichester's 'Get Active' Festival, a free family sports and activities day presented by Chichester District Council. The charity ran a popular face painting stall and raffled off two pairs of Goodwood Revival tickets, generously donated by Revival's founder Lord March.

"We were delighted to be part of the Get Active Festival. It's a fantastic opportunity to rub shoulders with others in the local community and let people know what we do" said Euan Clarke, Community Fundraiser at Children on the Edge.

Children on the Edge are a Chichester based charity who support some of the most marginalised children in the world. They currently run 15 different projects across 10 different countries helping 5,000 children each day.

'Get Active' was part of 'Chichester's Big Weekend' which also included a local food fare and a beautiful illumination of the city's park and walls.
